March 29, 2017, 9 a.m. – 2 p.m.
at
CAS-CIAC, 30 Realty Drive, Cheshire, CT 06410

Featured Keynote Speaker:
Dr. Kymm Ballard, National Expert in Physical Education and Health Education

Join Health Education and Physical Education Coordinators and Leaders from across the state to share and develop strategies that promote student health and wellness and the link to academic achievement.
Participants will:

- receive updates pertaining to school health and physical education legislation and policy including ESSA and USDA Wellness policy expectations;
- discuss the role health education and physical education play in addressing the health and academic needs of students through the Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child approach;
- access resources and strategies for expanding key partnerships and addressing health and education disparities;
- connect with colleagues within regional collaboratives and identify ways to support program implementation; and
- participate in hot topic roundtable discussions.

The State of Connecticut Department of Education is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

Audience: Health education and physical education leaders and coordinators as well as district administrators with responsibility for these programs.

Facilitators:
Ann Marie Colebrook, President CAAHPE, President CTAHPERD
Ellen Benham, Secretary-Treasurer CAAHPE
Dr. Bonnie Edmondson, Education Consultant, School Health Education, Connecticut State Department of Education
